

Welcome and go-round introductions

Mollie discusses outcomes of last meeting and goals for this meeting

Jean gives overview of agenda:

- Interests example
- Small interest groups/report
- Break
- Summarize key areas of agreement
- Modification priorities
- Public comment
- Small groups (includes Lunch)
- Report of small groups
- Summary
- Conflict resolution

By end of the day we want to have priorities for modifications and way to resolve conflicts.

Mollie discusses BLM interests handout

Break into small interest groups to discuss areas of agreement/to maintain

Interest teams report out to the group on aspects that they agree on / like / want to maintain. Recorded in spreadsheet

Break

Mollie gives instructions on how to prioritize modifications.

Start with interests. Relate actions / improvements to interests. Provide more than one option for how a particular interest can be better met.

Lunch incorporated into small group discussions

Groups report out on the priorities for alternative modification based on what issues they would like to try to resolve in sub-groups and what issues the BLM staff will develop resolution proposals.

Break (BLM staff group issues for sub-groups)

Possible sub grouping:

1. Ecosystem / Economics / Aesthetics / Recreation – ACECs, Minerals, Livestock grazing, quiet / natural areas
2. Ecosystem / Economics / Aesthetics / Recreation – Travel Management, Seasonal restrictions, road closures
3. Ecosystem / Integration – Military

Whole subcommittee meet before Tuesday

BLM staff take a 1st crack at addressing issues; bring key decisions/options back to group (with close communication with subcommittee members)

Open meetings for subcommittee to attend on particular issues before Tuesday

Work through “easier” issues; begin making progress

BLM synthesize greater and lesser conflicts for next meeting (i.e. ecosystem and recreation on travel mgt.)

BLM to meet w/ a few outside specialists; ID conflict levels; put in an order; have info. ready for next mtg.

Synthesize info. / issues into a packet for distribution before next meeting (on Friday).

Focus energy of group on areas that need to be resolved (have the most direct conflict)

Next meeting 9am – 4pm at the Prineville BLM Office
